What we're looking for:

We need awesome people who have a strong passion for the scuba diving industry and marine conservation and understand the importance of running a 5* dive operation.

As you will be in charge of the welfare of our clients - in addition to your general awesomeness, you will be smart, able to keep your cool in high pressure situations and be a friendly, approachable sort. Think love child of Jacques Cousteau and the Dali Lama - who spends a lot of time in a wetsuit.

You will be dealing with a huge range of divers and tourists on a daily basis in a stunning but also remote beach location in Mozambique. You will need to be on the go all the time. Most days you'll be working from when you wake up to when you go to sleep so someone with great energy levels and a super positive attitude is essential. Basically, moaning will not be tolerated.

There are 6 key areas you will be working in:

- Instructing, leading dives, running courses
- Liaising with clients and maintaining positive relationships with returning clients
- Administrative duties e.g. qualification verification, indemnity completion, dive planning
- Equipment maintenance, handling and records
- Manning dive centre reception when not diving
- Assisting marine biologists in data collection (appropriate training provided)

Year round we have customers from all over the globe join us for their diving holidays. We're an environmentally conscious dive school (PADI Green*) with a passion for inspiring others and providing a safe and exciting learning environment for our customers.

We're looking for smart, passionate scuba divers who want to work hard in a spectacular location with stunning megafauna to support us in Mozambique in 2019, with the potential to stay longer. You will have a 3 month probation period, with monthly appraisals to keep things on track.

If you fulfil the criteria above then we can't wait to hear from you! Please submit your CV/Resume (include your PADI student counts report, instructor number, number of logged dives and 2 professional references) and a cover letter to info@jaysprodiver.com no later than 20th Feb 2019 and wait to hear back for an interview date. As you will be working with minors, we will also be requesting a criminal record check which needs to be clean. If you are successful we'll want you to join us in country as soon as possible.
